

THE WHITE SNOW ONCE UPON A PLATE - TEA SET

Antonia Astori, Lorenzo Petrantoni,

Extraordinary decorations by Lorenzo Petrantoni enrich the iconic The White Snow Collection. For Driade, the Genoese artist draws on the nineteenth-century graphic repertoire for a set of plates that characterises his expressive language. Petrantoni is a multifaceted and surprising artist, illustrator and art director. Influenced and fascinated by 18th century engravings and graphics, he combines these elements in his illustrations and videos. His primary sources of inspiration are the books and dictionaries of that period, to which he restores new life through his splendid contemporary inlays.

Tea set in white porcelain with black graphic decorations for two people. The package is composed by: two tea cups (W. 10,8 cm, D. 9 cm, H. 7,5cm) and two tea cup saucers Ø 13,9 cm.
