

FRANÇOIS

Lievore Altherr,

"I have always perceived a touch of the french culture in the eclectic identity of Driade. Likewise, i have always been fascinated by parisian interiors, by their way of mixing different styles of furniture, classic and vintage pieces paired with contemporary objects" Alberto Lievore the asymmetrical legs enhance the tabletop, making it look as it is floating in mid-air. Its rounded corners, so forms and extremely pleasant feel make it an object to fall in love with every day of the year.

Structure in metal rod 60x60, legs in solid ebonized ash, tempered glass top. Indoor use only.
